

Transfer Guide - Baccalaureate Degree Plan (BDP)
Associate in Fine Arts (AFA) to BA Drama

This is a suggested guide. Following the guide does not guarantee admission to UNCG or guarantee an AFA or BA degree will be conferred. Students should seek academic advising to determine the best course of study to meet educational goals and degree requirements. Refer to the UNCG's admissions website for more information on admission and transfer of credits. Credit will only be awarded for transferable courses for which a grade of C or better is earned. Refer to the NC Transfer Course List for full listing of courses by designation – UGETC, CAA GEN ED, Pre-Major/Elective.

In completing the AFA, in preparation of completing the BA Drama, students should complete the listed courses. For UNCG courses, MAC indicators reflect the general education course requirements met at UNCG.

The Bachelor of Arts in Drama requires a minimum of 120 semester hours (sh). UNCG requires a minimum 2.0 overall GPA for graduation.

Students pursuing a B.A. degree in the College of Visual and Performing Arts must also complete all requirements in a minor area of study that is different from their declared major field. Students may select minors in or outside the College of Visual and Performing Arts, and students are encouraged to seek advice from CVPA advisors when making this choice. Any B.A. student who is pursuing a double major is exempt from this requirement. See the Minor Requirement topic on the College of Visual and Performing Arts page for more information.

This plan reflects the degree program's requirements published in the 2023-2024 university catalog. All guides are meant as an example of how a degree can be completed. Course availability, prior credit, course prerequisites, major requirements, and student needs must be considered in developing an individual academic pathway.
